WAKE UP YOUR WANDERLUST

Hi A,

There's no doubt about it: the current pandemic is changing the world in ways we could never have imagined. With international and state borders closing, planes grounded and government advice to #stayathome, avid travellers across the country are feeling the disappointment.

We know, we feel it too.

But here at Webjet, we're working around-the-clock (from home, of course) to weather this storm together. To help our customers as best we can and to look ahead to the future, to a time when we can swap quarantinis for REAL martinis (and sip them on a tropical island beach somewhere).

So when you've binged your hundredth Netflix episode, exhausted all of your baking ingredients, and your cats simply won't let you take another photo of them, take some time to dream.

Dream to plan your next adventure for when this all comes to an end, for when you can say goodbye to isolation and hello to your next vacation. And to help you wake up your wanderlust, we'll be sending you regular updates with all the travel inspiration you need.

If you still have an outstanding query in relation to a Webjet booking, the most direct way of making sure your request is seen by our Customer Service team is by completing our online form located here.
